

TUCKER HIBBERT ANNOUNCES 2012/2013 SNOXCROSS SPONSORS

November 15, 2012 – Tucker Hibbert, the reigning snocross World Champion, enters his 13th professional season with a rock solid race program focused on breaking records. Hibbert plans to race a loaded schedule with events both in the US and overseas with a heavy emphasis on winning the first-ever gold medal six-peat at ESPN Winter X Games the end of January.

Monster Energy renewed its position as the title sponsor of Hibbert's race efforts and Arctic Cat will continue to provide factory support with its second generation ProCross Sno Pro 600.

Ram Truck recently announced its multi-year partnership as the official truck of Hibbert and team Monster Energy/Arctic Cat to showcase the new groundbreaking 1500 half-ton pickup along with the best-in-class towing and best-in-class Gross Combined Weight Rating (GCWR) Heavy Duty line.

As announced yesterday, Hibbert partnered with FLY Racing to wear the F2 Carbon helmet year-round.

Hot Stuff Pizza, APV Synthetic Oil and TekVest are back after a successful first season with team Monster Energy/Arctic Cat.

Dedicated long-time partners returning to the team include: Castle X Racewear, Stud Boy Traction, Speedwerx, Leatt Brace, FOX, SPY, Kicker, Digital Ink Design & Graphics and CTi.

Hibbert will kick-off his race schedule at the AMSOIL Championship Snocross season opener in Duluth, Minn. Nov. 23-25. The event will be streamed live on ustream.com and delay broadcast on CBS Sports.

Tucker Hibbert - #68 Monster Energy/Arctic Cat

"Racing is truly a team sport and everyone from the sponsors to the mechanics have to work together to make it a success. Being a team owner and racer is a lot of responsibility but I'm proud to know I have a true partnership with all the brands associated with my team. I can't wait to put all our hard work to the test at the first race next weekend!"

Noteworthy

For 2013, Hibbert partnered with Arctic Cat, Castle X Racewear, SPY and Digital Ink to create signature products.
